According to the ROBLOX website, there are over 15 million registered and active players. Like many other user-generated content sites for young children, ROBLOX encourages users to be safe and responsible on its site. It also has a moderation system that allows members of the community to report profiles and comments that may be inappropriate or offensive. Parents can also choose what games their kids can play, or even disable chat so other players can't talk to their child. ROBLOX has also introduced a new feature called "Guardians" which works like parental controls on most software. It allows players to set a game rating they are comfortable with, so that they can choose between games.

There are also people who scam other players by selling items with prices they can't get for items that aren't worth much at all when you try to sell them. I once had someone scam me because of that. They told me their account was hacked and that they could fix it for me if I give them one of my item. So I gave them one and they scammed me. Another problem is when people are posting comments and other players comment back at them about it. There is a lot of spamming going on, but the worst part is there is a lot of inappropriate content that is being made like adult themes, swearing, and inappropriate skins.
