On March 22nd 2021 a father claimed that his young son was being harassed by online predators on roblox. His son was given what he believed to be an authentic phone number for support from roblox but it was actually a phone number for an adult service in California called "Spunky".

On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from fun and addicting! I like roblox because it lets you use your imagination for building things and it lets you play games made by other kids. Rated 3 out of 5 by Anonymous from Great game! Good game for all ages, but can take up a lot of memory space!

Builders Club Premium can be used in games greatly increasing the amount of Robux and/or XP a player earns by a given amount. If used, then Builder's Club is required to play those games. There are two types of premium features: content premium and currency premium. Content Premiums typically involves a single item or feature that changes the game mechanic, such as more life points and/or more room to build, or increased maximum health for monsters. Currency Premiums usually involve the addition of new items to the game that are only available through favorable conditions (for example, allowing players to purchase a specific item for Robux). Some Currency Premiums can also require membership in Builders Club.

Roblox has been criticized by parents for issues such as allowing players to have relationships with other users through the game, and allowing players to (unsuspecting) "friend" hackers. Other criticisms include consuming large amounts of bandwidth, and not being child-friendly. The site has been removed from school computers in order to protect children.

ROBLOX's Terms of Service has many loopholes which allows users to get away with nearly anything, such as selling products that have been stolen from other users or using bots for their own gain. The system is also very inconsistent in how it deals with complaints and bans. One of the more infamous examples is user "Sephiroth", who had been banned for attempting to distribute his game, "TitanMC". The ban was eventually lifted, and the account became widely regarded as a joke.[11]

Downfall: Roblox's popularity has fallen since the launch of Minecraft. An older version of Roblox, Blocks, Inc. was sold to ROBLOX on April 1, 2021 for $3.5 million.[68] Since then, Roblox has not been able to compete with other similar game sites like Minecraft and World of Warcraft in terms of revenue and popularity. However, they are a profitable company with many projects in development.

This is mostly used for buying virtual items such as weapons or accessories on Roblox's marketplace and selling them at a profit, which is rather common as people often sell their in-game belongings/items for real money .
