A user's membership is displayed as a number of "blocks" that they have in their account. This number can be increased at any time by purchasing a builders club membership which also unlocks other features such as custom backgrounds, avatars and other features like chat rooms and new games. The first block costs 99 cents, while additional blocks begin at $2.99 for 12 blocks. Unlike Xbox Live Gold and PSN, the number of blocks does not reset after you have purchased them, but keeps track of all the purchases you made up until you buy more blocks.

As of March 2021, Roblox has over 64 million users with 30 million monthly active users. In January 2021 it was announced that females now comprise more than 36% of its demographic, up from just 26% in 2021. Roblox has also had a steady increase in overall player count since 2021. In February 2021, Roblox launched a redesign of its user interface, designed to make it easier for new players to learn about the game and play it. Over 200,000 people signed up during the first week of the rebrand.

Two employees who worked on the HR department for Roblox, Abigail Sexton and Aaron Dixon, were eventually fired for allegedly not doing their jobs properly. They both accused David Baszucki of firing them for speaking out about the issues with the company's HR department.

Players could also get banned by moderators for sending unwanted messages to other users. A moderator could then ban a player's account for spamming other accounts or trying to bypass chat filters. There are other forms of trolling which can be found on Roblox today.
